

PLEASE ANNOUNCE IN YOUR CONGREGATIONS (Nov 12th) AND PRINT AND PASS OUT THE ATTACHED FLYER TO EVERYONE. Thank you very much.

We are now a mere 6 weeks away from Winter Family Weekend 2005. For those who have attended in the past you know how educational and how much fun these few days together really are. And once again this year, much advance effort has been put into providing what we hope will be a most profitable and even unprecedented family weekend experience. This year's event runs from Friday evening through Tuesday night, Dec 23rd-27th. Copies of a flyer for this event are available (with your bulletin or at the back table) giving many details of what is planned. Please take time to read through the information and if possible make plans to join us this year. We do encourage parents not to send their teens without appropriate supervision for their own safety and protection. It is sure to be fun for everyone younger to older, grandchild to grandparent.

Enclosed in the flyer is:

- Information regarding the seemingly endless list of activities
- Where to make reservations
- How and when to register for sporting events
- How and when to register for the young adult dinner dance
- How to inquire about participating in special music
- Where to gather information for the “singles in the middle”

This year we are encouraging you to register online. However, if you cannot register online, you may pick up a copy of the online registration form from your pastor, or at www.ucg.org/familyweekend

Many helping hands are needed to make this event successful, so even if you are not planning on participating in any or all of the activities, by registering you can volunteer to serve in a variety of ways ranging from the dessert reception on Friday night to the family fun fair. This is a wonderful way to serve our spiritual family.

A note from Gary Antion:

This is the third year for the All-Ambassador Reunion at the Family Weekend in December. ABC will host a gathering of all former Ambassador College/University students and the more recent Ambassador Bible Center students. The time is 5:00 – 7:00 PM on the Sabbath (after services) in the Farmington Room. Light refreshments will be available and plenty of fellowship for the nearly 200 who attend. Families are welcome also.

We hope to see you in Louisville, KY this winter break.
